Expertise

Attorneys at Montgomery & Andrews have a rich history of advocacy for clients before the legislature, in the Governor's office, before state regulatory bodies and with the New Mexico congressional delegation. Our lawyers have deep ties in our community that allow us to advocate on behalf of a client in ways that less established firms and smaller lobbying teams cannot. Our decades of experience walking the halls of the Roundhouse have given us unique insight into the legislative process and an understanding of the tides of public and legislative opinion that are unmatched by any other lobbying team in New Mexico.

Montgomery & Andrews' reputation is not only recognized in New Mexico, but internationally as well. The firm is a member of the State Capital Global Law Firm Group; which is an international organization of the world's premier lobbying law firms. Montgomery & Andrews is New Mexico's only member, and Attorney Nancy King, one of the firm's primary lobbyists is the past chair of the Group and serves on its board. Our membership in the Group allows us to expand the scope of our representation by drawing on a worldwide network of lobbyists who bring invaluable expertise to difficult or challenging projects. Ms. King, and Brent Moore co-author of the New Mexico chapter of the Groups 50 State Handbook on Lobbying, PACs and Campaign Finance published by West Publishing Company.

A Skilled and Experienced Team

Montgomery and Andrews' lawyers have extensive experience representing corporations, trade associations and nonprofit organizations before the New Mexico legislature and the state's regulatory bodies. The firm's government relations attorneys bring you decades of diverse experience in the legislative and regulatory process. The firm's lawyers and lobbyists have devoted their careers to understanding New Mexico government and have represented many regional and national clients on a wide range of issues. They are widely respected for their expertise and integrity and for their ability to achieve results for their clients.

Law Firm Support

Our office provides significant support for our lobbyists. The full legal expertise, experience and reputation of Montgomery & Andrews' lawyers and staff are available to support the government relations team. We often call upon the recognized experts in our firm on such topics as water rights, environment, insurance, real property, energy, health care, banking, taxation, and other important areas of civil law to support us in achieving our clients' legislative and regulatory goals. The firm receives legislative reporting services and uses full-time staff to assist the lobbyists during the session.
